

LIVE UNITED

DEVELOP YOUR FUTURE LEADERS WITH UNITED WAY OF THE DUTCHESS-ORANGE REGION'S LOANED EXECUTIVE PROGRAM

An immersive leadership program, United Way's Loaned Executive Program is designed to be a rewarding opportunity for your organization, employees, United Way and, most importantly, our community. United Way calls on you, our corporate partners, to lend your best and brightest employees this year to help in all aspects of community engagement while they gain experience in project management, communication, public speaking, professional networking, relationship building and corporate social responsibility impact. Loaned Executives (LEs) assist United Way in fundraising, engaging volunteers and event planning. In return, United Way provides ongoing professional development that focuses directly on executive skill building.

BENEFITS TO THE SPONSORING BUSINESS

- Boosts organization visibility and strengthens external relations with other organizations through contacts and working relationships
- Increases number of employees with advanced leadership potential
- Free professional training at no cost to your organization
- Meet your corporate social responsibility goals by impacting the quality of life in the community where your organization conducts business
- Recognition as community leader at various United Way campaign events, including our annual Celebration of Service awards dinner in the spring; on website and program materials

BENEFITS TO THE EMPLOYEE

- Increased confidence and leadership ability, communication, public speaking, creative thinking, problem solving, negotiation, project and time management skills
- Ongoing hands-on professional development workshops and experiences
- Close interaction with key community leaders and corporations to expand professional network
- Opportunity to have a direct impact on mobilizing resources to create measurable and lasting change in the community
- Lifetime of valuable community connections and friendships
- Priority access to United Way resources
- Authority to nominate future Loaned Executives to the program

BENEFITS TO THE COMMUNITY

- Increased public awareness and support for community needs
- Improved fundraising results while maximizing campaign resources
- Inspired passionate champions

“As a Loaned Executive I support causes I believe in while educating and engaging employees about how each dollar they contribute directly impacts our local community. Working with community and business leaders last year, I received invaluable training and put into practice integral communications skills, necessary for any successful professional. Join United Way's Loaned Executive Team today to create a better tomorrow!”
