

COMMUNITY

HEROES

PROJECT

Military families receive FREE training to become volunteer leaders, addressing key issues in their community.

Who is the training for:

- Veterans
- Service Members
- Military Families

(from any branch of the military)

- Share your training and knowledge.
- Be recognized as a community hero, today and everyday.
- Address some of the most pressing issues in our community through volunteer projects.

ENHANCE YOUR SKILL SET

Through the training you will

- Utilize natural leadership skills to support a good cause.
- Understand the components of organizing and managing a service project.
- Develop a social and support network in the community.
- Earn Volunteer Leader Certification.
- Make a difference now in the local community and in the future through continued volunteer opportunities.

Space is Limited

FREE TRAINING

Dates: August 4th, plus project TBA

Time: 10:00am to 5:00 pm

Location: City of Beacon Housing Authority

Sign up now! www.uwdor.org/communityheroesproject

Questions? Call Community Heroes Project AmeriCorps Members, Emily Sassano or Brian O'Keefe at 845-471-1900 ext 3104 or ext 3129 or email esassano@uwdor.org or bokeefe@uwdor.org.

Through United Way's MISSION UNITED™ we fight for those who fought for us.

United Way of the Dutchess-Orange Region