

Every day Roberto has worked hard for his family. Starting his own business was his lifelong dream and learning the plumbing trade was his assurance to security. But now, because of COVID, all his jobs were canceled and his savings was quickly depleted.

When Roberto reached out to United Way in April, his main concern was for those he was supporting - his wife, his son and daughter and his mother. He was afraid he was going to lose his home.

Thanks to you, United Way was able to keep Roberto and his family safe with a grant from the Crisis Fund and they didn't have to choose between food or shelter. There are too many Robertos right now, having to make impossible choices because of the impact of COVID-19 in our community. Help us help them through your donation to United Way of the Dutchess-Orange Region.
